Compatriots:

On behalf of the men of the Texas Division Sons of Confederate Veterans, I would like to extend our compliments and support in honoring and remembering our Confederate ancestors. The Confederate soldier stands as an example of honor and bravery throughout the world and is in every way deserving of the respect being exhibited by you and others like you as we celebrate the sesquicentennial of the War Between the States.

We admire and appreciate your continuing devotion to honor and remember our Confederate ancestors. Even though we live in different countries, we stand united in preserving the memory of these brave and gallant men and the Cause for which they fought.

In sincere and grateful appreciation, I remain your obedient servant.

Deo Vindice,

Johnnie L. Holley, Jr.
